Texto de cada estudiante

Our beautiful house where we live my family, is behind a supermarket and to the right of business of clothes, to its left is located a sports park, and on this a green space where my daughter plays with her other friends, our house is very big and we can perform any social activity and family.

Inside my house there are three bedrooms and to your right there is a beautiful kitchen on the left there is a room and to the front the respective bathrooms, in addition to having a large patio for family activities and games of my daughter and on this section, is located a terrace for the look of the panorama of the city.

The shopping center is located to the right of my house and to the front some health centers, besides to the left a public recreational park where there are many children's games and behind this many green areas with beautiful trees where they usually practice sports like playing the ends week in family.

As an inheritance of my parents, I owe a lot to my house and that is why I thank him for all the personal and family development he has given me, besides being beautiful and with a special warmth of home, it is where I was born, I grew up I had a family and I hope I can share it for a long time.

Conclusiones

La importancia de redactar un texto con cohesión y coherencia partiendo de un borrador, bosquejo o esbozo en el que planteen las ideas básicas de un tema escogido, además de construir un texto sobre una situación cotidiana teniendo en cuenta la gramática y el vocabulario estudiado en los contenidos del curso.
